

As a family physician having used Reach Out and Read for several years, I am honored to be a witness to children and parents who both have been touched by this program. Inciting parents to read to their children creates bonds and definitely gives children a needed push not only for school but also for social interaction. And Reach Out and Read affects in a favorable way the other members of the family as well as friends

Robert J. Perry MD
194 Howard St.
New London, CT 06320